The subject of the stereopticon lecture of the Cong'l church next Sunday evening will be "The Pilgrim Leaving the Land of His Fathers," illustrated by 82 colored slides. This is the first of a series of Pilgrim stories. Very interesting.

NOTICE—The Fishing Licenses have arrived. Those who have receipts please call and exchange them for licenses.
B. W. McFARLAND, Town Clerk.

"Ostler Joe"

In the days when the public taste ran to strong, blood-stirring plays, "Ostler Joe" stood out as being head and shoulders above the ordinary melodrama, and the Nellie Gill Players believe they are giving you one of the best of it's kind.
Those of you who have read the famous poem, "Ostler Joe" will be glad to see Mr. Henry in that character, and Miss Gill has a most congenial part as the erring wife, Annie, who leaves her husband and child to go to London, where she becomes a famous actress. In the third act, there is one of the most sensational incidents ever produced—it is guaranteed to make the audience actually "stand on its feet," altho there is no cause for alarm—it's all part of the play. If you really enjoy good comedy combined with strong emotional acting, "Ostler Joe" will surely give you an excellent evening's entertainment.

Hyde Park is doing well by the Players—better make "Nellie Gill Night" a regular feature of the Summer months.
"Ostler Joe" will be in Hyde Park, Tuesday evening April 26—let's go.—Adv.
